The red velvet of sumac berries adds cheer in January.

Delicate yellow sagebrush buttercups poke through the snow as early as February.

In March, dainty yellow and white desert parleys make their brief appearance for the year.

The red velvet of sumac berries adds cheer in January. Delicate yellow sagebrush buttercups poke through the snow as early as February. In March, dainty yellow and white desert parleys make their brief appearance for the year.

April showers bring the beautiful but deadly cream-coloured death camas.

In May the hillsides turn golden with the blooming of arrowleaf balsamroot.

Brown eyed susan, with its vivid orange-yellow petals, brightens the garden in June.

In May the hillsides turn golden with the blooming of arrowleaf balsamroot. Brown eyed susan, with its vivid orange-yellow petals, brightens the garden in June.

Mariposa lily, with its huge purple petals, is unmistakable in July.

White yarrow flowers wave to the bees in the August sun.

Brilliant yellow masses of golden aster linger on until September.

Mariposa lily, with its huge purple petals, is unmistakable in July. White yarrow flowers wave to the bees in the August sun. Brilliant yellow masses of golden aster linger on until September.

Rabbitbrush shows off its lovely yellow flowers into October.

The bright red berries of prairie rose entice the birds in November.

Tiny and fragrant, the yellow-green flowers of sagebrush bloom until December.

Rabbitbrush shows off its lovely yellow flowers into October. The bright red berries of prairie rose entice the birds in November. Tiny and fragrant, the yellow-green flowers of sagebrush bloom until December.